SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS (December 21, 2016) – On Thursday February 2, 2017, the Linda Pace Foundation, will host an evening of live reading and spoken word in collaboration with Gemini Ink. There will be literary performances with the themes of love and chance to accompany the premiere of the video installation, titled Love Lettering (2002) by Rivane Neuenschwander. This film was made in collaboration with her brother, Sergio, in their hometown in Brazil. In the film, Goldfish swim back and forth in bright blue water with tiny banners attached to their tails bearing isolated words that express love, loss and longing. The words begin to form grammatical elements and reveal possible fragments of a love letter.

There will be live poetry and spoken word performances by Alexandra van de Kamp and Diamond Mason. Classical/jazz acoustic guitarist Miguel Angel Garza will also perform.

The video installation's opening reception and live performances will be held at SPACE on Thursday, February 2, 2017 from 6-8 pm. Valentine's Day inspired refreshments will be provided.
